STEP ONE

Determining the offence category

The court should determine the offence category with reference only to the factors listed in the tables below. In order to determine the category the court should assess culpability and harm.

The court should weigh all the factors set out below in determining the offender's culpability.

Where there are characteristics present which fall under different levels of culpability, the court should balance these characteristics to reach a fair assessment of the offender's culpability.

Culpability demonstrated by one or more of the following:

A - High culpability:

- Sophisticated nature of offence/significant planning
- Leading role where offending is part of a group activity
- Firearm discharged
- Prolonged incident
- Serious nature of intended offence

B – Medium culpability:

- Firearm loaded or held with compatible ammunition but not discharged
- Significant role where offending is part of a group activity
- Some degree of planning
- Other cases falling between high and lower culpability

C - Lower culpability:

- No intention to cause injury to persons
- Lesser role where offending is part of group activity
- Little or no planning or unsophisticated offending
- Conduct limited in scope and duration
- Firearm not produced or visible
- Less serious nature of intended offence

Harm

The court should consider the steps set out below to determine the level of harm that has been caused or was risked.

This step is assessed by reference to the risk of injury/death or disorder occurring and/or actual harm caused.

When considering the risk of harm, relevant considerations may include the number and vulnerability of people exposed, especially children, accessibility and visibility of the weapon, and the location of the offence.

Category 1	Severe physical harm causedSevere psychological harm caused
Category 2	 Serious physical harm caused Serious psychological harm caused Offence committed in circumstances where person(s) put at high risk of death or serious physical or psychological injury or death Offence committed in circumstances where there is a high risk of serious disorder
Category 3	 Alarm/distress caused All other cases

Where there are characteristics present which fall under different levels of harm, the court should balance these characteristics to reach a fair assessment of the harm.

Where separate charges apply, for example in relation to any death or injury caused, the court should have regard to totality (see step seven).

STEP TWO

Starting point and category range

Having determined the category at step one, the court should use the corresponding starting point to reach a sentence within the category range below. The starting point applies to all offenders irrespective of plea or previous convictions.

This offence is subject to minimum sentence provisions. Where the minimum sentence applies,¹ and the sentence reached by application of the guideline would be lower than the minimum term, it should be increased to 5 years, unless there are exceptional circumstances. See STEP THREE for further details on the minimum sentencing provisions and exceptional circumstances.

¹ The minimum term applies in respect of a firearm specified in section 5(1)(a), (ab), (aba), (ac), (ad), (ae) or (af), (c) or section 5(1A)(a) of the Firearms Act 1968.

The table below contains a non-exhaustive list of additional factual elements providing the context of the offence and factors relating to the offender. Identify whether any combination of these, or other relevant factors, should result in an upward or downward adjustment from the sentence arrived at so far. In particular, relevant recent convictions are likely to result in an upward adjustment. In some cases, having considered these factors, it may be appropriate to move outside the identified category range.

Factors increasing seriousness

Statutory aggravating factors:

- A1. Previous convictions, having regard to a) the nature of the offence to which the conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence; and b) the time that has elapsed since the conviction
- A2. Offence committed whilst on bail
- A3. Offence motivated by, or demonstrating hostility based on any of the following characteristics or presumed characteristics of the victim: religion, race, disability, sexual orientation or transgender identity

Other aggravating factors:

- A4. Firearm prohibited under section 5 and subject to minimum term (where not already increased to minimum term)
- A5. Firearm under section 5(1)(a) (automatic weapon)
- A6. Firearm modified to make it more lethal-dangerous
- A7. Steps taken to disguise firearm (where not firearm under section 5(1A)(a))
- A8. Imitation firearm is readily convertible²
- A9. Steps taken to make imitation firearm appear more realistic (where not charged separately)
- A10. Firearm/ammunition held with multiple weapons and/or substantial quantity of ammunition (See step seven on totality when sentencing for more than one offence.)
- A11. Offence was committed as part of a group (except where already taken into account at step one)
- A12. Offender's actions resulted in a suspect avoiding arrest
- A13. Expectation of substantial financial gain (except where already taken into account at step one)
- A14. Attempts to conceal or dispose of the firearm or other evidence

² [Drop-down box to show relevant statutory provision or link to statute - Section 1(6) Firearms Act 1982]

- A15. Serious damage to property caused (See step seven on totality when sentencing for more than one offence.)
- A16. Abuse of position as registered firearms dealer or certificate holder
- A17. Commission of offence whilst under the influence of alcohol or drugs
- A18. Offender prohibited from possessing weapon or ammunition because of previous conviction (where not charged separately)
- A19. Failure to comply with current court orders
- A20. Offence committed on licence or post sentence supervision

Factors reducing seriousness or reflecting personal mitigation

- M1. No previous convictions or no relevant/recent convictions
- M2. Good character and/or exemplary conduct
- M3. Firearm incomplete or incapable of being discharged (including stun gun that is not charged and not held with a functioning charger)
- M4. Imitation firearm is unrealistic and unconvincingerude or unrealistic
- M5. Involved through coercion, intimidation, or exploitation
- M6. Voluntary surrender of firearm
- M7. Offender co-operated with investigation and/or made early admissions
- M8. Remorse
- M9. Serious medical condition requiring urgent, intensive or long-term treatment
- M10. Age and/or lack of maturity
- M11. Mental disorder or learning disability
- M12. Sole or primary carer for dependent relatives

STEP THREE

Minimum Terms

[To come once finalised]

STEP FOUR

Consider any factors which indicate a reduction for assistance to the prosecution

The court should take into account sections 73 and 74 of the Serious Organised Crime and Police Act 2005 (assistance by defendants: reduction or review of sentence) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered) to the prosecutor or investigator.

STEP FIVE

Dangerousness

The court should consider whether having regard to the criteria contained in Chapter 15 of Part 12 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 it would be appropriate to impose a life sentence (section 244A or section 225) or an extended sentence (section 226A).

When sentencing offenders to a life sentence under these provisions the notional determinate sentence should be used as the basis for the setting of a minimum term.

STEP SIX

Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 144 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and the Guilty Plea guideline.

Where a mandatory minimum sentence has been imposed under section 51A of the Firearms Act 1968, the court must ensure that any reduction for a guilty plea does not reduce the sentence to less than the mandatory minimum.

STEP SEVEN

Totality principle

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Offences Taken into Consideration and Totality guideline.

STEP EIGHT

Ancillary orders

In all cases the court should consider whether to make ancillary orders.

Forfeiture and destruction of firearms and cancellation of certificate

The court should consider ordering forfeiture or disposal of any firearm or ammunition and the cancellation of any firearms certificate. Section 52 Firearms Act 1968 provides for the forfeiture and disposal of firearms and the cancellation of firearms and shotgun certificates where a person is convicted of one or more offence under the Firearms Act 1968 (other than an offence relating to an air weapon) and is given a custodial sentence or a community order containing a requirement not to possess, use or carry a firearm. The court may order the forfeiture or disposal of air weapons under paragraphs 7 and 8 Part II to Schedule Six Firearms Act 1968.

Serious Crime Prevention Order

The court may consider the criteria in section 19 of the Serious Crime Act 2007 for the imposition of a Serious Crime Prevention Order.

STEP NINE

Reasons

Section 174 of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP TEN

Consideration for time spent on bail

The court must consider whether to give credit for time spent on bail in accordance with section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003.
