

Causing death by driving: unlicensed or uninsured drivers

Road Traffic Act 1988 (section 3ZB)

Triable either way

Maximum: 2 years' custody

Offence range: Community order – 2 years' custody

STEP ONEDetermining the offence category*CULPABILITY

The court should determine culpability by reference only to the factors below, which comprise the principal factual elements of the offence.

High

- Driving for commercial purposes
- Driving LGV, HGV, PSV
- Significant distance driven

Medium

- Cases falling between higher and lesser culpability because:
 - Factors are present in higher and lesser culpability which balance each other out and/or
 - The offender's culpability falls between the factors as described in higher and lesser culpability

Lesser

- The offender genuinely believed that he or she was insured or licensed to drive
- Decision to drive was brought about by a genuine and proven emergency
- Forced to drive unlicensed or uninsured by pressure, coercion or intimidation

HARM

For all cases the harm caused will inevitably be of the utmost seriousness. The loss of life is taken into account in the sentencing levels at step two.

STEP TWO

The starting points and category ranges below relate to a single offence resulting in a single death. Where another offence or offences arise out of the same incident or facts, concurrent sentences reflecting the overall criminality will ordinarily be appropriate.

Where more than one death is caused, it will be appropriate to increase the starting point within or above the relevant category range before consideration of other aggravating features. In the most serious cases, the interests of justice may require a total sentence in excess of the offence range for a single offence. See the Totality guideline and step five of this guideline.

Starting point and category range

Culpability	Starting point	Range
High	1 year	36 weeks to 2 years
Medium	26 weeks	High level community order – 36 weeks
Lesser	Medium level community order	Low level community order – high level community order

Below is a non-exhaustive list of additional elements providing the context of the offence and factors relating to the offender. Identify whether a combination of these or other relevant factors should result in any upward or downward adjustment from the sentence arrived at so far.

Factors increasing seriousness

Statutory aggravating factors:

- Previous convictions, having regard to a) the nature of the offence to which the conviction relates and its relevance to the current offence; and b) the time that has elapsed since the conviction
- Offence committed whilst on bail

Other aggravating factors:

- Victim was a vulnerable road user, including pedestrians, cyclists, horse riders
- Disregarding warnings of others about driving whilst unlicensed or uninsured
- Blame wrongly placed on others
- False details given
- Failed to stop and/or assist or seek assistance at the scene
- Passengers, including children
- Serious injury to one or more victims, in addition to the death(s) (see step 5 on totality when sentencing for more than one offence)
- Offence committed on licence or while subject to court order(s)

Factors reducing seriousness or reflecting personal mitigation

- No previous convictions or no relevant/recent convictions
- Impeccable driving record
- The victim was a close friend or relative
- Actions of the victim or a third party contributed significantly to collision or death
- Efforts made to assist or seek assistance for victim(s)
- Remorse
- Serious medical condition requiring urgent, intensive or long-term treatment
- Age and/or lack of maturity
- Mental disorder or learning disability
- Sole or primary carer for dependent relatives

STEP THREE

Consider any factors which indicate a reduction for assistance to the prosecution

The court should take into account section 74 of the Sentencing Code (reduction in sentence for assistance to prosecution) and any other rule of law by virtue of which an offender may receive a discounted sentence in consequence of assistance given (or offered) to the prosecutor or investigator.

STEP FOUR

Reduction for guilty pleas

The court should take account of any potential reduction for a guilty plea in accordance with section 73 of the Sentencing Code and the Reduction in Sentence for a Guilty Plea guideline.

STEP FIVE

Totality principle

If sentencing an offender for more than one offence, or where the offender is already serving a sentence, consider whether the total sentence is just and proportionate to the overall offending behaviour in accordance with the Totality guideline.

STEP SIX

Compensation and ancillary orders

In all cases the court should consider whether to make compensation and/or other ancillary orders.

- Ancillary orders – Magistrates' Court
- Ancillary orders – Crown Court Compendium

STEP SEVEN

Reasons

Section 52 of the Sentencing Code imposes a duty to give reasons for, and explain the effect of, the sentence.

STEP EIGHT

Consideration for time spent on bail (tagged curfew)

The court must consider whether to give credit for time spent on bail in accordance with section 240A of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 and section 325 of the Sentencing Code.
